

Research and Writing Option

Cared toward high school students, the field trip bus on primary documents, including written and visual artifacts. For an explanation and presentation of the primary documents, the students have a tour of the museum and then complete a brief writing assignment.

