Knowledge Rate = number of responses divided by the number of graduates.

The following is a list of definitions pertaining to the charts listed below.

The is derived from graduates who reported being Full-time Employed as well as those who are attending Graduate School, while also includes graduates who are Part-Time Employed, in Post-graduate internships and fellowships, military, as well as missions or other service experience.

post-graduate activity they deem most relevant to them. Because a number of graduates major in more than one discipline, results are a duplicated count, including graduate results from each identified major. The is the total number of graduates who responded to the survey identified as representing a particular department. refers to the number of graduates in that department who obtained a full-time position (30+ hours per week) after graduation; those who selected obtained a position of less than thirty (30) hours per week. refers to the graduates who applied and were accepted into, or were planning to attend, graduate school. Other is a culmination of additional categories, including:

.

Finally, those who referred to themselves as 2023

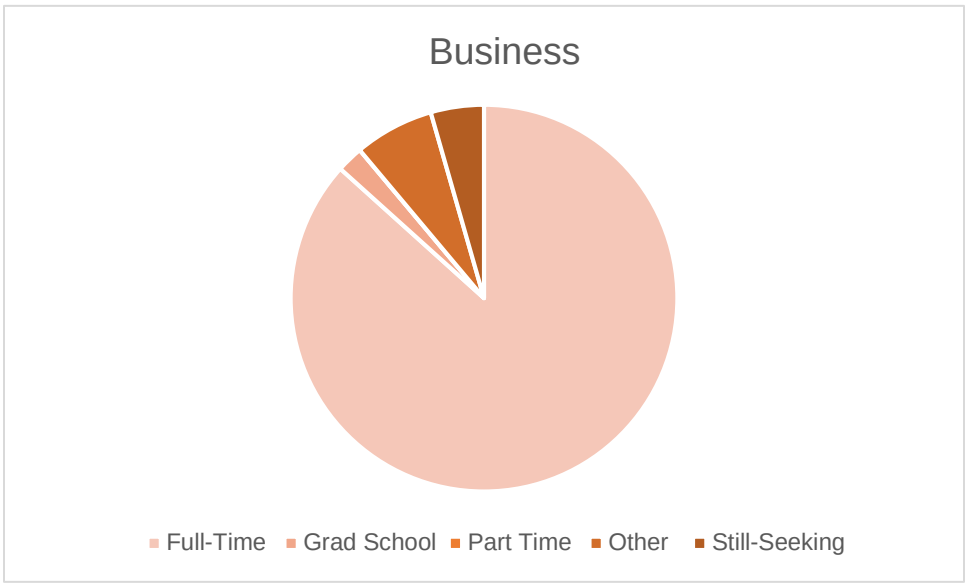
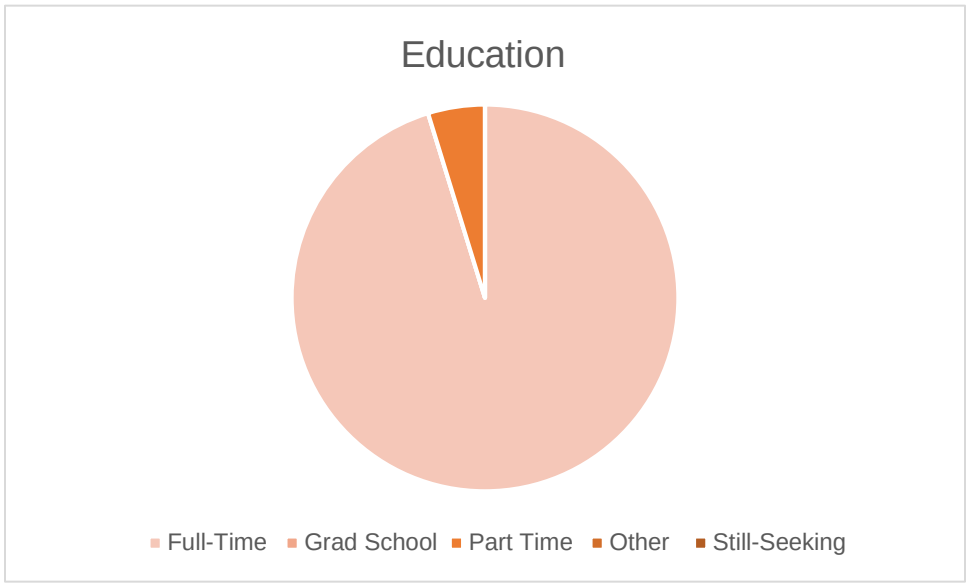
Number of Responses	10
Level of Excellence	50%

2023
Number of Responses	22
Level of Excellence	95%
Level of Succes	100%



2023
Number of Responses	45
Level of Excellence	89%
Level of Success	89%
Full-Time	39 / 87%
Grad School	1 / 2%
Part Time	0 / 0%
Other	3 / 7%
Still-Seeking	2 / 4%



2023
Number of Responses	21
Level of Excellence	95%
Level of Succes	100%
Full-Time	20 / 95%
Grad School	0 / 0%
Part Time	1 / 5%
Other	0 / 0%
Still-Seeking	0 / 0%